NEWS FROM TAMPA.

The Four Squadrons of "Rough Riders"

Anxious for Active Service.

The New Mexican's Tampa, Fla., correspondent states, that there are nearly 600 men of the "Rough Riders" still in camp there, namely the four troops that did not go to Cuba and about 150 recruits, 100 of who hail from New Mexico. The squadron is well drilled and in excellent shape and will compare favorably with the regular cavalry. Major Hersey, who is in command, has worked hard and faithfully to bring the squadron to a high state of efficiency and Captain George Curry, commanding Troop H, is proving a very valuable and good officer. The division commander, General J. J. Coppinger, has congratulated Major Hersey upon the fine state of discipline and efficiency that prevails among the "Rough Riders." The officers and men are anxious for active service and want to go either to Cuba or Puerto Rico to get at the Spaniards. It is believed that they will be sent to Cuba soon to join the eight troops there under Colonel Roosevelt and that the entire regiment will be sent to Puerto Rico. However, no orders to that effect had been received yesterday afternoon from Major Hersey's states. The major informs the New Mexican that he has made strenuous efforts to be sent to active service in the field and Governor Otero has telegraphed the War department, asking that Major Hersey and Troops G and I, composed principally of New Mexico volunteers be put into the field, either in Cuba or Puerto Rico. The command is in good shape and splendid fighting trim, there is no sickness, but the officers and men, from Major Hersey down, are tired of Tampa and camp duty and are very anxious for active campaigning.

Letter from Sergeant Armijo.

District Clerk A. M. Bergere has received a letter from his nephew, George W. Armijo, son of Mrs. Lola Luna, of Albuquerque. Young Armijo is a sergeant of Troop F, Captain Max. Luna's company in the "Rough Riders," now in Cuba, and it has been reported so much in letters and through dispatches, that Sergeant Armijo had his hand shot off at the engagement of La Quasina, that his friends have generally believed the report. Mr. Bergere's letter brings the welcome news that the wound was not near so serious as has been thought. The injury, writes the young man, is simply a flesh wound in the left hand and no bones were broken. Sergeant Armijo is now at the hospital at Fort McPherson, Ga. His hand has about healed and he expects to soon join his company again. The letter speaks very highly of the bravery of the young captain and all the members of the company engaged in the fight, wherein Armijo was wounded.

Card from Mrs. Fannie Sandoval.

Santa Fe, N. M., July 23, 1898.—Dear Sir: Please insert in the columns of your valuable paper the following statement:

In your issue of the 21st instant, there appeared an article in which it was related that my husband, Pedro Sandoval, had mistreated and beaten my person, and that in consequence of the blows inflicted I had a miscarriage; it is further stated that he assaulted Juliana Rivera and Josefa Gallegos on the 20th inst., but there is no truth in such reports and they do a great injustice to my husband and are calculated to injure my reputation. My husband committed no assault on those ladies nor did he use any weapon. The only thing he did was to call for me for the purpose of conducting me to the home of my parents, and I was just settling out in his company when the said ladies showed opposition to my departure and tried to detain me against my own and my husband's will. All the charges that in this connection have been made against my husband are not founded on fact, and to that effect I am ready to testify under oath. Respectfully,

FANNIE SANDOVAL.

Court Notes.

A transcript of the record in the case of Josephine Deserant, administratrix, vs. the Cerrillos Coal Railway Company, has been certified to the Territorial Supreme court by Clerk Bergere. R. E. Twitchell appears as attorney for the railway company and F. W. Clancy and N. B. Field for the plaintiff.

In the District court for San Juan county, in the case of Rafael Martin vs. Antonio Sandoval et al., involving the question of water rights, A. M. Bergere has been appointed a referee to take testimony. He will set a date for that purpose some time soon.

It is understood that the Territorial Supreme court will appoint a new clerk, when it assembles next week; also that Mr. Wylls will tender his resignation on the assembling of the court. There are several candidates for the position, the leading ones being Mr. A. M. Bergere, clerk of the District court here, and Hon. J. D. Sena, who well and ably represented this county in the lower house of the 32nd legislative assembly.

The docket of the Territorial Supreme court for the coming session is the largest in many years. Colonel R. E. Twitchell alone has seven cases on the docket.

FROM OUR VOLUNTEERS.

Miraculous Escape from Being Seriously Wounded of Young Ralph McFie—

The Spanish Fought Well.

A correspondent in the "Rough Riders" writes the New Mexican under date of July 7, that their three troops were still in camp near Santiago and that negotiations for surrender were then going on. The troops were glad of the rest. This thing of fighting an unseen enemy in bushes, cactus and palm trees when you cannot see ten yards ahead is not what it is cracked up to be. The three troops were under steady fire from June 30 to July 4, and shell and shrapnel were screaming around and over the men during all these long hours and days. When they were not shooting or dodging bullets, shells and shot, they were throwing up and erecting entrenchments and breastworks. Just mind that. There were some miraculous escapes from harm. For instance, young Ralph McFie, son of Judge John R. McFie, showed remarkable coolness and bravery. A remarkable escape from a three-inch gun hit the blanket roll and shelter tent carried by him on the shoulder. The shell made a hole in the tent but got tangled up in the blanket, and could not cut through and the blanket roll saved the young man from being seriously wounded. He coolly shook the piece out of the blanket and commenced shooting again just as if nothing had happened.

The correspondent says the man who says that the Spanish soldiers did not fight well and bravely does not know what he is talking about, but as for the Cubans he expresses contempt and thinks they are good for nothing else except to do the work of the coyote. The Cubans robbed the camps of the troops as soon as the men left to go into action and picked up everything the men threw away. Clothing is not very much in demand among the volunteers. Hats, trousers and shoes, belts, guns and pistols are about all that are needed.

That our volunteers went through unendured privations and hardships and were pushed ahead of the regulars saved the record for themselves at La Quasina and San Juan is true, and they did make the record, and the result is Wood is a brigadier and Roosevelt a colonel. The sentiment in the New Mexico troops is that they would like to be sent on to Puerto Rico and do some more active service.

They were ragged and hungry, but are full of fight and vim and spirit. At the date of the letter the wounded were doing well and there was no other sickness in the camp.
